

10 REASONS

TO UPGRADE FROM WINDOWS SERVER 2012

Improved performance and scalability, allowing for faster processing and handling of larger workloads.

2

Enhanced virtualization, providing more efficient use of resources and better management of virtual machines.

4

Better management tools, allowing for easier administration and monitoring of server resources.

6

Continued support and updates, ensuring that your server remains secure and up-to-date with the latest features and functionality.

8

Compliance with industry standards and regulations, including GDPR, ensuring that your server meets the latest security and privacy requirements.

10

1

Better security features with Windows Server 2022, including enhanced protection against cyber threats.

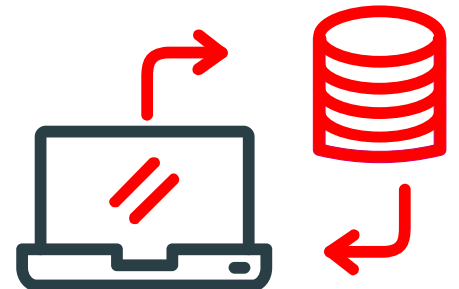

3

Support for newer hardware and technologies, ensuring compatibility with the latest hardware and software.

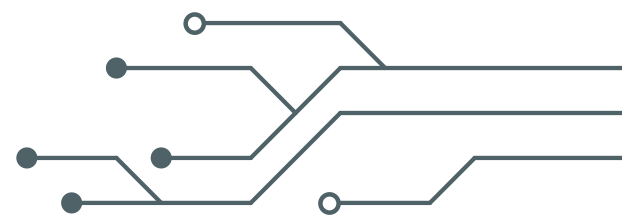

5

Improved storage options, providing better data protection and faster access times.

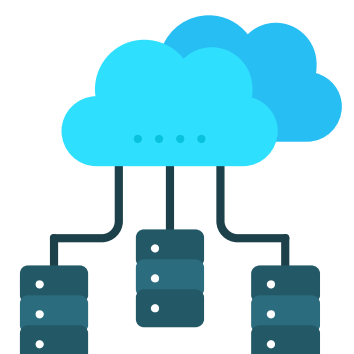

7

Improved networking features, providing more flexibility and control over network configurations.

9

Better integration with cloud services, allowing for easier management of hybrid cloud environments.

Contact Modern Networks today to learn more about the retirement of Windows Server 2012 and 2012 R2 and the importance of upgrading your server operating systems.